

Tax Tip
Week of October 24, 2011

Students at Foreign Universities

Students at foreign universities can claim the tuition and education and text book credits if the course lasts a minimum of 13 weeks. This time limit also applies to educational assistance payments from a Registered Retirement Savings Plans. Effective for 2011, the 13 week restriction on the length of the course is reduced to three weeks.